I find it difficult to adequately express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the Weaver students, faculty and staff with whom I have associated during these past three years.

I am grateful for the opportunity to have worked with you, and although there were many trying times for all of us, there were bright moments as well. I consider this experience as the most gratifying and challenging of my thirty years as an educator.

My plans for the future have not been finalized. However, I can assure you that next year I will be in Hartford working with you in some way to continue the job we have started—building a better Weaver.

Paul Collins,
Principal

Dear Students and Staff,

I am happy for this opportunity to say good-bye. Weaver has been part of my life for nine years, four of these as a student and five as a teacher, coach and counselor. I have worked almost tirelessly and I am not sorry for it. My only regret is that I have to leave you. I cannot write all that I have to say so I will keep it short.

I will never forget you. I will always love you and I pray that we will someday meet again. May God's blessings be with you always.

Love,
Mr. John Lee

As my association with Weaver High School comes to a close, I am given to reflection. Reflections as a student, as a teacher, and as an administrator. Reflections of names, faces and events, all of which have made my stay at Weaver most pleasurable and enjoyable.

To the Class of 1973, I wish you the best of fortune in all your endeavors. It has been a pleasure working with you.

Lawrence Shea,
Executive Vice Principal

The yearbook—it's the creation and the celebration of friendships. Potentially, the yearbook staff can metamorphose its experience into a book that is surprising, original, beautiful.

The people at O'Toole's know how to liberate that potential.

So you needn't go south or west to find someone to entrust your yearbook to.

We've been keeping our trust in the Northeast for over three quarters of a century.
